

The Greater Sudbury Police Service is requesting the public's assistance with respect to the following missing persons. This segment has been added to our Website in order to provide exposure in the hope that you can provide us with any information in relation to any of these individuals. With your help, the Service may bring these investigations to a close and provide relief to families and friends of those identified within.

IF YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION REGARDING ANY OF THESE INCIDENTS, PLEASE CONTACT THE GREATER SUDBURY POLICE SERVICE AT
(705) 675-9171

OR
gpsmail@police.sudbury.on.ca

OR THROUGH

CRIME STOPPERS AT
(705) 675-8477 OR (800) 222-8477

Historical Missing Person

ROGER PAUL BERTRAND

On the 11th of November 1999, between 10:00 - 11:30 a.m., Roger Bertrand left his home on Dutrisac Road in Hanmer, Ontario. Roger was a material witness for a threatening investigation and had appeared nervous for a week prior to his disappearance.

He is described as 5'5, 145 lbs., brown hair, hazel eyes. He was on a disability pension, suffering from back problems and his left leg is dysfunctional requiring a brace and a cane to walk. He had left his brace and cane at the residence when he left.

Roger was last seen wearing a black leather waist length jacket with lots of zipper and buckles on it. He also had a ¾ length grey-blue down filled parka, jeans and brown workboots.

Police investigation to date would indicate that Roger has been a victim of foul play.

If you have any information regarding this incident, please contact the Greater Sudbury Police (705) 675-9171 or Crime Stoppers (705) 675-TIPS (8477) or 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

ROGER PAUL BERTRAND
DOB: 05 SEPTEMBER 1957